

Dennis Hill Receives NYACD Merit Award

Dennis Hill, chairman of the board of the Delaware County Soil and Water Conservation District, was the recipient of the New York Association of Conservation District's Merit Award.

This award recognizes a SWCD director, RC&D council member, or NYS Soil and Water Conservation Committee member for outstanding effort or activity that promotes and advances District or RC&D programs. This activity clearly contributes to a better program and/or better understanding of natural resource conservation. The activity has been instrumental in the development or implementation of District or RC&D programs. The activity required unusual time or effort.

Dennis Hill, center, recipient of the NYACD Merit Award.

Dennis' award read:

"Dennis Hill, Chairperson and Grange member of the Delaware County SWCD, has been an unselfish, dedicated and knowledgeable leader of the NYSSWCC for several years. He has proven himself a true friend of Soil and Water Conservation Districts and their mission."